While the ongoing Indian Premier League's final match that is scheduled for May 15 in Hyderabad will officially conclude the Indian cricket season 2018-19, the current domestic calendar marked many a first in the history of Indian cricket.

For the first time ever, the Indian domestic season witnessed as many as 2024 matches involving 37 teams amounting to 3444 match days as compared to 1032 matches involving 28 teams amounting to 1892.5 match days in the 2017-18 season.

According to a BCCI release, efficient scheduling of tournaments ensured leaner tournament window and reduced operational encumbrances of longer tournament windows.
